

Augusta Arch

First-rate building in an outstanding area of Lisbon.

In one of the most important historical and tourist areas of the center of Lisbon, stands a building of eighteenth-century foundations that was once a bank vault. Today it is reborn entirely renovated with 28 unique apartments equipped with all the comfort conditions of modern times.

Standing between the Triumphal Arch of Augusta Street and one of the most important squares in Lisbon and the largest of Europe, the property has been completely renovated with high quality finishes, becoming an exclusive place in one of the most iconic areas ever, where the glow of the past intersects with the exhilarating present.
