

Cencosud

Cencosud is one of the largest and most prestigious retail chains in Latin America with a presence in 5 countries – Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru and Columbia – with multi-format operations that directly employs more than 140,000 workers.

Its range covers different business areas, including supermarkets, DIY, home and garden equipment and decoration, department stores, shopping centers and financial services. This makes Cencosud the most diversified company with Latin-American capital in the Southern Cone, with the largest amount of GLA.

Owner of Bretas, one of the biggest supermarket chains in Brazil, with 78 stores, Cencosud entrusted Engexpor with the project and works management for some of its units in the country.
