

Group Pão de Açúcar

The Pão de Açúcar group is the biggest retail and distribution group in Brazil, with over 2.000 selling spots in all regions of the country. Founded in 1948, in São Paulo, it is a part of the lives of million Brazilians, with activities in different segments of distribution, operations in physical stores and e-commerce.

The biggest private employer in Brazil in its areas of activity, with over 140 thousand collaborators, the Pão de Açúcar group practices an important role in the country's economy, not only by means of generating jobs, but also for their initiatives of social-environment responsibilities in all its businesses.

Engexpor is proud to be a part of the group's journey, by being selected to manage the project and the construction of some of their stores in Brazil.
