

Texsa

Industrial Unit has three functional and modern buildings

On a three hectar area, situated in the Industrial Area of Alpiarça, the construction materials company Texsa delivered the project management and its construction that would install a production unit destined to manufacture and commercialize waterproof windows.

The enterprise is made up of three buildings: one for industrial instalations, another one for offices and social spaces and the third for technical related support.

Texsa

Alpiarça / Portugal

GCA

6.000 m²

2010

Completed

